

Farmers Asked to Raise Larger Crops as Big Aid in Crises

The Nogales Chamber of Commerce has sent out the following circular letter to the farmers of Santa Cruz county: The war in which we are now engaged is a war of economic resources. To keep one soldier ready and fit to fight it requires the united efforts of five who stay at home. In the front rank is the American farmer. In the appeal of the Department of Commerce Secretary Redfield says:

"The food supply of the country must be increased, and I urge upon you to co-operate in every way with the Department of Agriculture in its campaign to increase the crops of the country. I need not point out that the planting season is at hand, and that any action to be effective must be taken at the earliest possible moment."

In response to a nation-wide call made by President Wilson and the Department of Agriculture, a food mobilization and conservation congress was held in Tucson last week, at which meeting it was recommended that all producers of the State of Arizona take the following steps for food mobilization:

Cereals—That every available tract be planted as soon as possible to Indian corn, milo maize, feterita, Kaffir, beans and other crops suitable for food for either man or beast.

Silos: That in order to make the best use of these crops, silos be built for the preservation of this feed, as experience has proven that crops made into ensilage increase in food value fivefold. Swine and Poultry—That, as a means for the rapid increase of the meat supply, there be a more extensive breeding of swine and a large increase in eggs and poultry production.

In view of this action we call upon every farmer in Santa Cruz county to consider it his patriotic duty to plant every foot of ground to corn, beans and forage crops that he can reasonably expect to be able to harvest. It is recommended that experiments be done away with this year and crops planted that are reasonably sure to be brought to a successful harvest. Concentrate your efforts particularly on pink beans, and also plant as large a crop of corn, milo maize and feterita as possible.

We want to get in touch quickly with every farmer who is willing to increase production, but who either has not the seed or the machinery.

Lack of seed or the possibility that harvest labor will not be available are not good excuses for failure to increase production this year. You can be assured of assistance in solving these items this year.

A special appeal is made to every farmer to plant at least a sufficient quantity of potatoes to meet his own needs for next fall and winter. In any food crop this year you are not confronted with the problem of price or market. The price will be good and the market available at once.

The agricultural committee of the State Council of Defense desires that the farmers of Santa Cruz county be brought together in meeting and definite plans of action arranged for increased production in the county. To that end a conference of the presidents of farm improvement associations and other leaders in the various communities will within the week be called together at Nogales as the guests of the Chamber of Commerce, and shortly thereafter it is expected that the farm improvement associations meet and give this important matter careful and serious consideration.

Young Men Wanted to Enlist in U.S. Navy

T. L. Anderson, boatswain mate, representing the United States navy recruiting department as advance man, was in town yesterday, and talked to many young men of this community about the advisability of joining the navy. He impressed the young men with the fact that those enlisting now will not have to undergo a long training period at a military camp or in barracks, but will be sent out on the high seas for immediate fighting, as the navy will bear the brunt of the fighting in the war with Germany. He also told of the opportunities which are given young men in the navy for advancement, education, travel, etc. He created considerable interest, and when the recruiting party arrives in Patagonia on May 9 and 10 there will doubtless be several enlistments from the patriotic young men of this community.

The mill at the Wandering Jew mine is going up in good order. The new road to the mine is already completed, and that it is a good one is evidenced by the taking of the 8500-pound crusher over it with no mishaps. It is expected that early in May there will be ore passing through it, when the mine will be manned to extract ore. About 20 men will be employed in the mine, while the mill will be run two shifts to take care of the ore produced.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Lou Stevens was in Tucson Tuesday on a short business trip.

Sheldon Ijams, who recently moved to town from Parker Canyon, is building a small house.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Jaeger were passengers yesterday morning for Biabee for a few days' business visit.

Roy McIntyre of Tombstone was in Patagonia a few days this week, visiting with relatives and friends.

O. J. Rothrock the Elgin farmer, returned yesterday morning from Nogales, where he had been on a short trip.

Francisco Morales, employed at the Three R mine, has applied for a license to marry Julia Moraga, also of the Three R community.

Mrs. J. M. Forsyth expects to leave some time next week for a visit to her sister, who is in very poor health, in the old home in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cotton of Elgin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Logan Lockard were through town Monday morning, en route to Nogales.

Newmark's Pure Extracts, Teas, Ground Spices, Whole Spices. Quality and prices guaranteed to be right. For sale at Howard's Cash Store.—Adv.

Miss Laura Parson, efficient clerk of the Board of Supervisors, was visiting in Patagonia last Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Wilkey and son, Mr. Dave Wilkey.

Mrs. O. F. Ashburn was called to Los Angeles this week, on account of the illness of her daughter, Miss Hulda, who with her sister, Miss Zelta, is attending school there this year.

Ed Ellis, who has a big team on the Duquesne ore haul to Patagonia, is preparing to do some extensive farming this year, on the ranch he owns between Canile and Elgin. He expects to put in about 50 acres in beans alone.

The Patagonia school will give a closing day program at the Opera House Saturday evening, May 12. Patrons and friends are invited to attend. Printed copies of patriotic songs will be given to all who will join in the singing. After Monday, April 30, some of the work which has been done in the school during the year will be exhibited. Those who are interested will be welcome.

If you drink coffee, why not drink the best? Newmark's Pure High Grade, 40c the pound. Every pound guaranteed to give satisfaction. For sale at Howard's Cash Store.—Adv.

A 10-lb. son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Huntington in Patagonia Thursday morning, April 26. A recruiting officer left town just too soon to register this lad on his enlistment.

Harold Bell Wright, the famous novelist, was registered at the Commercial Hotel in Patagonia Sunday, accompanied by a party who were going through from Tucson to Nogales in machines.

Arturo Valenzuela and Herb McCutchan have returned to work on the West Side group, owned by J. C. Miller, after a brief layoff occasioned by an injury received by Mr. McCutchan last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Etechells returned Tuesday evening from Tucson, where they had been visiting a few days, and went out to the Mansfield camp, where Mr. Etechells is employed by the Ruby Copper company.

Mr. Tankley, who has been hauling ore from the Flux mine to the shipping station, returned the latter part of last week from a visit to his family in Naco. While away some of his dogs strayed, or were stolen, and he wants to know about them.

J. W. Miller, who was elected treasurer of the home guard organization, recently formed in Patagonia, requests those who put down their names for donations, to please pay the sums they agreed to give, in order that the night-watchman may be paid his salary.

Perry J. Wilson was in from the San Rafael valley a few days ago, to take out his new French Buhr corn mill, ordered some time ago. With this new machine he can grind a considerable quantity of corn, and finds a ready market at steadily increasing prices, for all he can produce.

A horse race Wednesday afternoon between the horses of Thos. Gardner and Jesus Acevedo attracted considerable attention, the horse of the latter winning by a very narrow margin. Horse races may be held here on the 5th of May, the "Cinco de Mayo" holiday of the Mexicans, if purses can be made up, or if anyone wants to back their judgment of horseflesh with sufficient cash to make a race attractive.

Capt. John Cady has returned from the coast. While away he met some relatives whom he had never seen, one of which had a book containing the names of over 300 members of the Cady family. The captain enjoyed his trip and returns in much better health.

Miss Ruby Shields surprised her many Patagonia friends by quietly getting married in Nogales one day last week, to Mr. Newton D. Taylor, a young man of Nogales. They may decide to make their future home in Nogales. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are the recipients of many good wishes and hearty congratulations.

Louis Fleischer, a well known mining man, one of the owners of the Arizona-European group near the Three R, accompanied by W. D. Canfield, an insurance man, "Steinfeldt" Jones, representing the Albert Steinfeldt Co., and Johnny Brickwood, all of Nogales, were making a trip through the Patagonia country Tuesday, inspecting mines and attending to other business. They were all pleased at the evidences of prosperity in the Patagonia country.

Wedding of Mining Man Is Solemnized

On Saturday evening, the 21st of April, 1917, there took place at Alto a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Mr. Louis I. Roland and Mrs. Victoria Vasquez, Judge Josiah Bond performing the ceremony. The groom is an oldtime miner of Bisbee, who of late years has been in Central and South America, and the bride is a former resident of the Sonora capital and the mother of Mrs. A. J. Hooks of Alto. After a bountiful supper served at the home of Mr. Hooks, dancing was indulged in by all the guests to the end of the day. Among those present from other places were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapman of Patagonia and Mr. Ralph Verfurth of Bisbee.

An extra good program has been secured for the moving picture show Sunday night, April 29. A thrilling drama in two reels, "The Cage Man," is said to be a most interesting picture. The comedy, "I'll Get Her Yet," also in two reels, will make you laugh. "The Animated Weekly," which will be shown Sunday evening, is a high priced and always interesting film. It will show "The Bathing Beauties' Parade," "Girls' Marathon Swim," "Training for War," and many other interesting and timely topics, in addition to the cartoons by Hy Mayer, the noted cartoonist. New lights have been ordered, carpenters have repaired and made stronger and more comfortable the seats, and an extra good program is offered. Don't miss it.

Proclamation Gives Intelligent Action as Demand of the Hour

The Arizona Council of Defense, recently called together by Gov. Campbell, has issued a proclamation to the people of the State, calling upon them to stand shoulder to shoulder to meet the critical conditions now threatening the State and nation by reason of the war with Germany. Part of the proclamation is as follows:

"We call upon all aliens among us to unite with our citizens in promoting the public good. Let us be consistent of those who have been subjects of nations with which we are now at war. It is vitally important that every individual shall realize his duty, by loyally obeying and upholding the law. Do not carry arms unless you have the right to do so. Do not kindle or repeat idle rumors and gossip. Give aid and assistance to the officers of the law to enable them to maintain public peace and order. Encourage the organization of our National Guard, army and navy; safeguard the rights of our soldiers and sailors and their dependents, so that the burden may rest as lightly as possible upon those who offer their lives in the defense of all. Every effort should be made to support the President in his plans for national defense. We recommend all necessary legislation to the end that the burdens of the war shall be equally borne by all. Let not this be a war by the patriotic few for the benefit of the many. The demand of the hour is united, intelligent and immediate action. With confidence in the patriotism of the citizens and residents of Arizona, we ask that every man, woman and child unite in public-spirited effort to uphold the peace, honor and welfare of Arizona and the Union."

U. S. Marshal Joe Dillon has seized the stock of guns and ammunition of the Nogales Hardware company, which is owned and managed by Germans. This was done in compliance with the order that all aliens enemies must be disarmed.

Nogales held the record for importing cattle from Mexico during the month of March, according to the report of Dr. T. A. Bray, in charge of the El Paso office of the bureau of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture. Through the port of Nogales were brought 9312 head of cattle, as against 4821 for El Paso. The importations for April have been unusually light.

The annual examination for county scholarship for the University of Arizona will be held at the office of the county superintendent of schools on the last Saturday in June. Graduates of the high schools in each county are eligible to take the examination. This scholarship amounts to $150 a year, and is payable by the State Auditor to the University of Arizona, to be applied on the student's bill for board, room and incidental fees.

Many inquiries are being received by Secretary of State Sidney P. Osborn, asking when the session laws of the recent session of the legislature will be ready for distribution. This publication cannot be issued until the bills become laws, and the bills do not become laws, with the exception of those carrying the emergency clause, of which there are very few, until 90 days after the close of the legislature, which date is June 7, and not knowing what are the laws and what are not, the session laws cannot be printed until that time.

I. T. Sparks, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific railroad, will do all in his power to further the increase in food crops along the line of the Southern Pacific. Recently Mr. Sparks made the following statement: "Dry farmers who wish seed and are unable to buy it, or who have pumping plants and are not financially able to buy oil to operate them, should write me at Tucson and make their wants known. I will see that their applications are placed before the proper authorities. Ability to handle crops must be shown. In their communications to me, farmers should state the number of acres they can cultivate, and whether the soil is adapted for beans or milo maize."

Cattlemen in some sections say the worst part of the drought is now over, even if it doesn't rain again soon, as the mesquite trees are putting out and this will furnish sufficient nourishment for the cattle, it is believed. That's one advantage this particular part of the Southwest has over other cattle growing districts. The mesquite tree is not much for looks, and to a stranger in the community it seems hardly believable that enough nourishment could be obtained from them to keep cattle alive, when a late Spring, like the one this year, keeps back the native grasses, but such is the case. The value of the scrubby and ugly-looking mesquite is thoroughly appreciated by cattlemen.

B. Lewis and Homer Edwards returned yesterday from the Gila Bend country, where they had taken 186 head of cattle. Det Walker and Jim Gatlin, who went with them, were left with the stock. The cattle were poor when they left here, but they moved the entire bunch without losing a head. The day they arrived at their destination a big rain came up and thoroughly soaked everything, including the cowboys, thus assuring plenty of feed.

AS YOU PLANT, SO WILL YOU PICK
Big, heavy, meaty tomatoes are not accidental, they come from pedigreed seeds. Crisp, spicy, tender radishes are not accidental, they come from pedigreed seeds. This is a law of life.

FERRY'S SEEDS
are developed with as much care as the purest blooded livestock. This Spring plant Ferry's Seeds.
