

Pyeatt's Ranch Has Lots of Attractions

Several automobile parties motored from Patagonia to the pretty ranch of Henry Pyeatt, at the foot of the Huachuca mountains, last Sunday, and spent the day fishing, swimming and picnicking. This is one of the most beautiful places in this part of the State, having plenty of shade, water and fruit, and is frequented by people from Bisbee, Douglas and Tombstone. Mr. and Mrs. Pyeatt are always glad to have visitors, and their hospitality is known and appreciated far and wide. Probably more people from Cochise county visit their ranch than from Santa Cruz county, for until recently the roads from Nogales and Patagonia leading to this end of the county were well nigh impassable, making the trip a long, hard journey.

Now it is a very pleasant day's outing to make the trip, either from Patagonia or Nogales, and have several hours in which to fish and swim at the ranch before returning. The worst road on the entire trip is in the neighborhood of the Ashburn ranch, but C. E. Travis has a crew working there this week, and within a short time this road will be in good condition. One way to go is by way of Sonota, and through the Babocomari grant to the Vaughn school house, to Canille and on over the new road to Pyeatt's. Returning by way of Canelo Pass, over one of the best roads in the country, through forests of oak, the view of the San Rafael valley from the pass will repay one for the trip, even if one has had poor luck at fishing.

The fish in the lake at the Pyeatt place, furnished a constant stream of pure water by a never-failing spring, are mostly carp. "San Simon Jack" gives a recipe for cooking fish of this particular kind, which is to the effect that the best way to cook carp, on account of the great number of small bones in them, is to place them on a nice clean board, carefully but thoroughly spread mud—dobe mud if obtainable—over them and put in oven to bake. After thoroughly baked, take out of oven, scrape off mud—and eat the board! But this recipe need not be followed in cooking carp from the Pyeatt pond, as they are said to be almost as palatable as trout. Besides, it is just as much fun to catch them as any other fish.

Apricots are now ripe at the ranch and in a few weeks other fruit will begin to ripen. In the orchard are two large fig trees, of the white variety, which produce an abundance of figs each year.

Those who believe in "seeing America first" and especially that part of the U.S.A. near their homes, should make this trip. It will prove a delightful day's outing. If the start can be made early enough in the morning from Nogales or Patagonia, stops should be made in the Canille country, at the beautiful ranch homes of the McCarty's, the Billy Parker place, Bill Bower's, Will Roath's, Mr. Johnson's (formerly Mrs. Goodin's), Henry Woods' and at the Coches, run by J. C. Mackey, and many other places. To get the greatest enjoyment of the day, be sure to stop the machine at the Canelo Pass, just before descending into the San Rafael valley. Since the summer rains have started and the valley has taken on an emerald hue, the view from this point is worth traveling miles to see. California and Colorado have nothing on this part of Arizona when it comes to beautiful scenery, if we but knew it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hooks and Mr. Hook's son, Pat, returned Wednesday from a trip of several weeks' duration to Oklahoma, where they visited Mr. Hook's aged mother and other relatives. The trip was made overland in a "livver," and the party report a very enjoyable time. Mr. Hooks says the farmers of Texas and Oklahoma are putting out much larger crops than usual this year, and that a general air of prosperity was evident throughout the entire country visited.

On Monday night, July 23, a reception and smoker will be given the members of the State Tax Conference, which convenes in Nogales for a week's session beginning on that day. A fine program has been arranged, including an "imported" speaker, boxing bouts, music and a feed. Patagonians are cordially invited, says a letter from Secretary Bristol of the Nogales Chamber of Commerce.

Albert Davidson, who runs the automobile stage between Patagonia and Nogales, is having a good business of late. This stage line is a great convenience for residents of the two towns and should be liberally patronized. The roads are in very fair condition now, and with the big automobile used by Mr. Davidson, the trip to the county seat and return is a pleasure.

Lost—Somewhere between the Commercial Hotel in Patagonia and Duquesne, probably between the hotel and the top of the road near the school house in Patagonia, a hand-satchel containing flashlight, revolver and a few other things. Reward of $5.00 will be paid for its return to this office.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Plucky Girl Makes Good Effort, Fails

Mrs. John Carter, married to a Douglas soldier, who smuggled herself over to France with her husband's regiment when he was called to foreign service, has been ordered returned to the United States by the American military authorities. Mrs. Carter's ambition was to become a Red Cross nurse. She cut off her hair and donned soldier's uniform, and made the voyage without detection, only to be sent home after reaching her destination. Before marrying Mrs. Carter was Miss Hazel Blausler, daughter of Pete Blausler, well known in this county, a former employe of C. B. Wilson of Patagonia. Mr. Blausler recently sold his ranch at Vaughn to Ed Ellis, and is now living in Salem, Oregon.

H. A. Cole has leased the repair department of the American Garage from Hopkins & Valles. Mr. Cole is an experienced automobile mechanic, having worked in some of the best shops in the country, coming here from the Studebaker station in Nogales, and any repair work left in his charge will be promptly attended to. Messrs. Hopkins and Valles will still have control of the garage, selling supplies and gasoline, renting cars, storage, etc., the repair department only being turned over to Mr. Cole.

J. B. Holcomb, familiarly known as "Kid" Holcomb, underwent a very serious operation in Nogales recently, for liver complaint. He stood the operation, which was performed without the use of anesthetics, in good shape, and is expected out of the hospital in a few more days.

The taking of testimony in the Baca Float ejectment suits is still being continued before Edwin F. Jones, master in chancery of the United States district court in Tucson. The case may continue for some time yet.

Mrs. Eula Burch of Globe is visiting in town this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Meriwether, old acquaintances in the Globe-Miami country.

Kultur's Way

Are days of chivalry all gone?
When heroes rode before the blast,
When Sheridan gave his life in pawn,
Or Farragut was lashed to the mast?

The days when chieftains took a chance
And led their men in battles dread,
And glorious made war's fearful dance,
Those days, alas! those days seem dead!

We see the Hunnish superman,
Acclaimed the partner of high God,
Replacing those who bravely ran
To lead the way where armies trod.

For now the Kaiser rides not out
Upon a snow-white, prancing horse;
He is not there to check the sudden rout
Nor give his men victorious course;

He rides amidst his baggage piled
About him in a limousine,
Afraid to stir the vengeance wild
Of those his cowardice have seen.

For millions of his subjects die,
Poor subjects! and in trenches groan,
But Hohenzollerns do not cry,
For they are safe! and they alone!
—Alar.

Our Financial Strength

Two billion dollars is a tremendous sum of money. Yet the American people have loaned their Government that much and have barely touched their resources. The money was raised so easily it only seemed to show the tremendous financial strength of the country.

It is not one-tenth of our bank deposits. It is less than one-eighth of our bank loans for one year. It was less than one-half of our national savings for 1916, and only five per cent of our national income for that year, according to estimates.

Not only is this first Liberty Loan bond issue of two billion dollars much larger than the the initial loans of any of the other nations engaged in the war, but it was raised in much less time with much less effort and was subscribed to by a vastly greater number of individuals; this too when danger was far from us and the nation in a calm frame of mind.

The coming second issue of Liberty Loan bonds, with the great mass of the people of the country much better educated as to Government bond issues and Government finances in general, it is reasonable to suppose, will be disposed of with even greater success than the initial issue.

The over subscription to the first issue of over a billion dollars augurs well for the success of the next loan. There are several million more investors in Government bonds in America than there were a month ago. Then there were some three hundred thousand holders of United States bonds; now there are over four million. And the thrill of the thought of our soldiers in France will rally the people to the nation's call.

The "United Sons of Rest" has been having regular daily sessions in the shade of the big trees in front of Fessler's barber shop this week. The membership seems to be enjoying a healthy growth. Hard work or physical or mental endeavor of any kind is not a requisite for good standing in the club, but one must be a sort of "knowledge" person to attain any distinction or even secure an audience from the members. President Wilson and his cabinet could learn exactly how to conduct the war with Germany if they would only attend a few sessions of the Patagonia Chapter United Sons of Rest. And, oh mercy! what a lot of information and advice Mr. Larrimore could get on road building!

ELGIN

Mr. and Mrs. Moneer and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Bryant of Tucson were Elgin visitors last week, being the guests of Mrs. Barnett.

Little Edward Turner has been quite ill the past week, but is some better now.

The Elgin country received a fine rain last week, and now everything looks fine.

W. R. Beaty came in from the Whetstones Tuesday, and reported things looking nice out there.

Mark and Wirt Fenter spent the week-end in Elgin.

V. P. Hanson, the enterprising merchant, has just received a shipment of farming machinery.

Burt Hanson returned Sunday from a four weeks' visit in Los Angeles, glad to be back again.

Tom Turner, the Pantano cattleman, has been in Tucson most of the week, attending court. Tom is one of the old-time Arizona cattlemen, who came from Texas many years ago. For several years he was manager of the Empire ranch. Afterwards he was ranch owner and sheriff of Santa Cruz county. Now he owns one of the best little cow outfits in the country six miles from Pantano. Tom has also raised a large family and has lately become a grandfather, as there is a big new boy in his son's family, and Tom puts in a good deal of his time with his head in a barrel hollering "Grandpa" to hear how it sounds.—Arizona Cattleman.

The parties from the valley who took lumber and sheet iron from the Mowry dump Tuesday are well known to the care-taker. Anyone caught on the property again will be prosecuted.—Adv't.
