

Worked Over and Defaced Brands on Cattle Cause Trouble

A Mexican cowboy at Washington Camp was arrested recently and is now in jail at Nogales for defacing cattle brands, from cattle brought across the Mexican line. Complaint was made by a large owner of Mexican cattle named Elias, who resides in Douglas. This week a young American cowboy, James Hathaway, has also been arrested on the same or similar charges. The arrests have caused something of a sensation among cattlemen generally. The following dispatch was sent out from Nogales and printed throughout the State:

NOGALES, ARIZ.—Mutilation of cattle brands by a band of cattle thieves in the southern part of the State, particularly in Santa Cruz county, and on a scale to alarm the cattlemen of that section to prompt action, with the result that one of the alleged thieves is in jail and others are expected to be rounded up within a few days, is reported.

So widespread has been the work of the cattle thieves in the past few weeks that the large cattle owners have become thoroughly alarmed and have urged the State livestock sanitary board to order a general roundup of cattle in the southern part of the State that they might learn the full extent of these depredations, and also to end the work of these thieves.

First information of the existence of this band of cattle thieves in Arizona came from the southern part of Santa Cruz county, where more than a score of cattle in one bunch were found to have their brands defaced. Reports then followed from other sections of the county.

Prompt action on the part of the sheriff of Santa Cruz county and his deputies has resulted in the quick running down of one of the alleged thieves who is at present in the county jail at Nogales.

In order to make a clean sweep of the defaced cattle and assist in the running down of the thieves in every manner it has been decided by the livestock sanitary board that it will be necessary to make a general round-up of all the cattle in the southern part of the State, particularly in Santa Cruz county. Prominent cattlemen have urged the round-up and have promised all the aid called for. In advance of the general round-up, the board has sent special investigators into the field with instructions to spare no efforts in running down the thieves.

HYMENEAL

Joseph P. Lamma, Southern Pacific pumpman here, was married last Sunday evening to Mrs. Rosenda Avila by the local justice of the peace. The ceremony occurred at the Richardson Flats at the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Dale C. Goodrich, who stood up for the couple. Only a few intimate friends were present. Much happiness and prosperity is wished the couple by friends and acquaintances.

Leo Kessler, son of J. J. Kessler of Tucson, well known in this community, was married last week to a charming young lady of the Old Pueblo. The happy young couple came down to Patagonia to spend their honeymoon, Mr. Kessler having had considerable business in this community, and thinks it one of the prettiest places in the State. The bride was also pleased with the climate and beautiful surroundings of Patagonia.

A letter received from Ed Hainline, former Patagonia carpenter, says he is well satisfied with his present job, with a mining company near Duncan, Ariz. He also says the Collie brothers, well known here, are both doing well. Perhaps the most interesting news in the letter is the statement that he can get good beer within three miles from where he is camped. Oh, well, three miles isn't much of a walk.

Wednesday evening a windstorm of rather unusual velocity blew for a few minutes in Patagonia, afterwards changing to a nice gentle rain. The wind is reported to have done some damage at Geo. F. Weiland's place at Jefferson Camp, a few miles from town.

The date for starting up the moving picture show has been changed from Aug. 12 to Aug. 19, on account of the failure of supplies to arrive in time.

J. B. (Kid) Holcomb returned this week from Nogales, where he recently underwent an operation for abscess of the liver. Dr. Smelker very successfully performed the operation, and the "Kid" says he's now feeling better than new. He had been troubled for several years with the complaint, and feels greatly relieved at having the

It is planned to make a demonstration of the machine at the ranch of Perry J. Wilson, in the San Rafael valley, soon after its arrival, where it will be used in plowing.

G. P. Woodward, genial farmer of Sonoita, was in town Tuesday for a short time. Mr. Woodward, like other men of this county, doesn't like the treatment the young men here are receiving in the matter of the quota

There is more Catarah in this section of the county than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. The Ladies' Aid Society realized $24.45 from the sales of ice cream and cake at the Peerless Parlors Wednesday. Thanks are extended to the friends of the church movement, to the young ladies who assisted in the work, and especially to Messrs. McIntyre and Ijams, who donated a percentage of all sales of cream.

MILITARY

Paul M. O'Neill and Arturo Valenzuela are two of Patagonia's popular young men who successfully passed the physical examination at Nogales this week, and waived exemptions, for service in the selective army being raised in the U. S. to fight the heathenish Hun. Each day adds to the list of those accepted from this part of the county. A complete list will be published as soon as obtainable. Examining physicians report the boys up here in fine physical condition, a good testimonial to our unbestable climate.

I. D. Brooks, Chas. G. Reeves and Chas. Elwonger, all of Sonoita, were through town Tuesday en route home from Nogales, where they had appeared before the local selection board in answer to the summons for the selective army. All of the young men passed the physical examinations. Will Farrell of Harshaw, John R. McIntyre of Parker Canyon and Lon Pyeatt of Canille were also passed by the board.

"Shorty" Holcomb was kicked on the shin by a vicious mule one day this week, while at Duquesne loading ore. It takes more than a kick from a mule to interfere with the energies of a determined man, and "Shorty" secured a crutch and is hopping around as busy as ever.

Physicians Caution Danger of Epidemic

County Health Officer Chenoweth has wired the local health officer, Dr. T. B. Fitts, that two Patagonia patients in the hospital at Nogales are typhoid cases, and asks that the causes of infection be immediately ascertained and if possible abated. The unusual number of flies, rather than the water, is the cause given by local medics for the prevalence of typhoid in this vicinity this year. Dr. Fitts says there are several Mexican families in town who have no toilets, other toilets are not properly disinfected, and the filth arising from such unsanitary conditions is liable to cause an epidemic of typhoid. People are urged to clean up their premises, boil drinking water, and poison or "swat the fly" with renewed vigor, to prevent the threatened epidemic.

Numerous automobile accidents of late are keeping automobile repair men busy. Last Sunday morning the Fords of Station Agent Stone of Patagonia and O. J. Omstead of Nogales collided at a narrow place in the road below town, near Ash Grove. Monday morning the machines of Ray Sorrells and Dr. Ferguson came together on the hill on the other side of the Three R canyon. No one was seriously injured in either of the accidents, although both Mrs. Omstead and Mrs. Ferguson, who were in the machines with their husbands at the time, were considerably shaken and slightly cut by glass from broken windshields. The automobiles were more or less damaged.

OUR WORK IN WAR SETS NEW RECORD

Army and Navy Journal Asserts That It Has No Parallel in Military History.

ALL CRITICISM IS SILENCED

Service Paper Points Out That No "Political General" Has Appeared to Hinder Operations—Praise for Defense Council.

New York.—That the achievements of the army and navy of the United States in the first three months of the war "have worked forward with a smoothness and an absence of scandal that have no parallel in our history of warfare."

"In material accomplishments we have set up," the Journal says, "a record before the world of which we may well be proud. The great outstanding facts of these three months of war is that our military and naval operations have been conducted solely by army and navy officers, with never a 'political general' showing his head above the horizon."

Praise for Defense Council.

"Criticism and fault-finding have entered, like rumor painted with a thousand tongues," but they have pretty well disappeared since, in common decency, these elements have had to acknowledge the army and navy officers have carried out their allotted tasks efficiently and well.

"Even greater than this has been the army's achievement owing to the signal change that has come to the nation's policy regarding a large army since the entry of the United States into the war."

How Our Secret Service Started.

All nations engaged in the great war now have elaborate spy systems: It is a phase of military work as old as history: "Yankee" and "Rebel" scouts of both sexes were noted for their daring fifty odd years ago

THE use of spies in war is as old as war itself. The modern German elaboration of espionage, in time of peace as well as war, among neutrals as well as enemies, is rather a reversion to type than a step in progress, says a writer in the Philadelphia Record.

Miss Van Liew, a resident of Richmond, Va., rendered invaluable service to the Union cause, and Mrs. Greenhow was equally valuable to the Confederacy as a spy in Washington.

Besides the spy activities at home, the Confederate states had an important secret service work in Europe. English sympathy was enlisted on their side, arrangements were made for building cruisers at Bordeaux, English ironworkers were sent to the South.

To cut the cost of living,
They tell us to economize—
To save and not be giving,
To act and not to theorize.

To lessen work of buying
We're taught to save on odds and ends,
To waste no time in crying,
But take whatever misery sends.

We're asked to dig a garden,
To raise potatoes and sweet corn,
Our hearts to shut and harden,
And middlemen hold to scorn.

And when we've worked like beavers,
To feed ourselves on roots and greens,
Then face the fire and fevers,
And can the surplus peas and beans.

They all insist these measures
Will shorten this terrific war,
Will bring us back our pleasures,
And the liberty we're fighting for.

While all these hints are needed,
Must miners, who are far from farms
Let history's voice be heeded,
To end this cruel war's alarms.

So let us not start hoeing,
So let us speed up business now,
Let's keep the smelters going,
And they in turn will speed the plow.

No, no! Let us be wiser,
And if it's all the style to can,
"Our Boys" will can the Kaiser,
And make of him a decent man!

The new class of loyal American workmen and skilled mechanics now assembling in the Warren district will keep more than $2,000,000 a year in the State for development of its mine and farm lands and for investment in realty of various classes within its boundaries. This huge sum was formerly transmitted by foreigners to relatives and others in their home countries on the other side of the Atlantic. If the elimination of all but loyal Americans is an outcome in Globe and Miami, as it has been in Bisbee, and if it continues on through the State as is now in prospect, not less than $10,000,000 a year will be saved to Arizona in the manner that Bisbee and the Warren district are making their $2,000,000 gain.
