

Pretty Boudoir Caps

There are some pretty new boudoir caps for the holidays, made of the usual light-colored silks and various laces.

Something for Grandma

The chances are that grandma has gone into service by joining the ranks of those who knit socks for the soldiers.

Serving and Tea Aprons

One might as well expect Christmas to be observed without dinner as without the pretty tea aprons and serving aprons that help to make it joyous each year.

Gay Fudge Apron

Among the belongings of every young girl one may expect to find a fudge apron, for what is life to the flapper devoid of fudge?

Bright Breakfast Jacket

From China came this brilliant black and gold kimono-jacket, but it is a simple affair that almost anyone can make.

Neckwear for Gifts

Here is a collar and cuff set made of white organdie, hemstitched, feather-stitched and tuckled, that will please every fine lady, young or old.

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any.

SPANISH INFLUENZA

Do Not Fear When Fighting a German or a Germ!

By DR. M. COOK.

The cool fighter always wins and so there is no need to become panic-stricken. Avoid fear and crowds. Exercise in the fresh air and practice the three C's: A Clean Mouth, a Clean Skin and Clean Bowels.

If a bad cold develops, go to bed, wrap up well, drink freely of hot lemonade and take a hot mustard foot-bath. Have the bedroom warm but well ventilated. Obtain at the nearest drug store "Anuric Tablets" to flush the kidneys and control the pains and aches.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Looking too far ahead is likely to bring doubt-doubt of our ability and fear of the road.

USE UP THE SMALL PORTIONS.

HERE the family is small and the recipe for ordinary things should serve five or six.

When beans are baked it seems a better economy to bake with the bean pot well filled, than a small dish, as both will bake in about the same time.

A good-sized cabbage may be divided, shredded, and served as coldslaw one day, then the third or fourth day another portion may be cooked and seasoned with salt, sweet fat and milk.

In these days, when it is a crime to waste any food that may be eaten, one may substitute corn oil for olive oil, thus saving quite an amount if oil is used freely.

Instead of using the bread for toast when it is slightly stale, try steaming it and serve it well buttered and a nicely seasoned dish of steamed tomatoes poured over it.

When a cupful of leftover meat of any kind is at hand, add it to two cupfuls of cooked macaroni, a white or brown sauce and seasoning of onion, salt and pepper.

Small bits of leftover pastry may be rolled into tart or turnover pies, thus having a variety of filling if small portions of jelly, jam or fruit are waiting to be saved.

When making spice cake or molasses cookies use the cupful of cold coffee left from breakfast, for the liquid, saving milk for other foods.

A man compares courtship to running after a stray cat. He will put every energy into the chase, but when his outstretched hand catches the rail all effort is over.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE TABLE.

APPLES in various forms furnish a great variety of dishes, from soup to dessert.

Apples Baked With Bread.—Remove the cores from good-sized apples, fill with jam and dot with bits of butter.

Corn Waffles.—Sift a cupful of corn flour with a teaspoonful of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful of salt.

Banana Custard Pie.—Fill an unglazed pastry shell three-fourths full of sliced bananas. Sprinkle a few drops of lemon juice over them and add half a cupful of strained honey, a pinch of salt and a few drops of lemon extract, and enough milk to fill the tart, with a beaten egg added.

Baked Hominy.—Take two cupfuls of cold cooked hominy, the small cracked grain variety, or one of the larger grains; two cupfuls of milk; a tablespoonful each of fat and sugar; a sprinkling of salt and two egg yolks. Heat well, then fold in the stiffly-beaten whites and bake in a buttered dish.

Save the whey from cottage cheese to use in place of milk in cakes, gems, muffins, gingerbread and doughnuts.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.
