EDITORIAL

Recognition of the new regime in Mexico did not come in time to make it an incident of General Obregon's inauguration, as it had been hoped it would. But in lieu of that, there has come what is next best, the authoritative assurance that all of the disagreements which stood in the way of recognition have been composed during the conference that Secretary Colby and Senor Pesqueira have been holding in Washington. "It only remains," Secretary Colby says in his note to Senor Pesqueira, "to give these understandings a form which is usual in dealings between friendly states." All the controversies have been settled "in principle," in other words, and it only remains to reduce the understanding to the form of a treaty.

Saturday night makes people human, and sets their hearts to beating softly and naturally as they used to do before the world turned them into war drums and jarred them to pieces with tattoos. The ledger closes with a crash, the iron-doored vault goes to with a bang, up go the shutters, and with a will the key clicks in the lock. It is Saturday night, and the business man and the hired worker breathe freely again. Homeward, ho! The door that has been ajar all week closes gently behind him; the world is all shut out. Shut out? Shut in, rather. Here are his treasures after all, not in the vault, and not in the book—save the record in the old family Bible—and not in the bank.

Hon. Joe Tumulty is reported to be undecided about accepting the lifetime Federal office tendered him by appointment of President Wilson, but while making up his mind he has bought a home in Washington. This reminds us of the preacher who had a call to a more lucrative pastorate, and while he was in his study praying over the advisability of making the change his wife was busy packing the household goods.

The French people will not have to endure coalless days this winter, report says. Germany is delivering more than the amount of coal called for in the peace terms, although Herr Stinness said she couldn't possibly deliver as much as she had agreed to.

The Ft. Worth pastor is correct in condemning mushy conduct toward criminals. The public ought at least to be as severe on criminals as their lawyers are, and it is well known that the lawyers pick them clean.

Secretary Baker says we are going to bring about the brotherhood of man in this day of victory. What good will that do unless we achieve the sisterhood of woman about the same time?

All that this part of Arizona asks of Santa Claus is that he bring a buyer who will pay a decent price for cattle and ores. The people will do the rest.

What has become of the old-fashioned plain citizen who didn't know he needed cuffs on his pants?

Our idea of the nude in art is that the bath tub scenes should be cut out of the moving pictures.

J. S. Gullin, accompanied by A. H. Gildewell, motored to Tucson Wednesday where Mr. Gildewell went to consult an eye specialist and to have an X-ray examination made of one of his eyes which has for some time been giving him trouble and much uneasiness.

Patagonia Elks Ball Pronounced Success

The Elks ball at Patagonia was one of the most enjoyable and liberally patronized events the picturesque mountain mining town has known for many moons, according to enthusiastic Nogales territorial devotees who kept time to the 25th Infantry jazz band all the way out, during the happy moments there and much of the way back.

The event of Saturday night is but a forerunner of numerous other similar functions planned in the mountain town, and, it goes without saying, that the late-histring is always out to Nogales.

The "let's go" spirit here always is spontaneous whenever Patagonia announces a good time, for the wideawake citizens always deliver.

SENATOR PROPOSES BILL TO HELP OUT FARMERS OF AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska introduced his bill proposing that the earnings of the Federal Reserve banks this year totaling about $79,000,000 be made available for loans to farmers to ease the present situation resulting from the falling of prices. At the same time, Chairman Gronna of the agricultural committee announced that efforts to bring up a resolution proposing the revival of the war finance corporation would not be made until Friday so that all senators would have time to study the testimony taken by the committee.

IRELAND AND FREEDOM

Miss O'Daley, one of the teachers in the Patagonia public school, has the thanks of the editor of the Patagonian for two copies of the Daily Irish Independent, published in Dublin, Ireland. These papers contain lengthy accounts of the martyrdom of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, comparing his life and achievements with those of Robert Emmett, Charles Stuart Parnell, Queen Victoria, King Edward and other noted men and women. "Yesterday," continues one account, "Dublin paid a tribute the like of which has never yet been seen on land or sea. It was unique. It was alone. It was unforgettable. There was a hush there. It was empty. It was the deathless spirit of Terence MacSwiney that Dublin paid its silent tribute, and not to any body. The shell was gone. The spirit was there."

Mechanically the Independent does not compare favorably with the metropolitan newspapers of America, the general news service is lacking in the pep and distinctiveness that characterize the great dailies in this country and the editorial page presents a somber appearance. But taken altogether the paper impresses one with the idea that life on the Emerald Isle is greatly lacking in the joy and sunshine which radiates in the hearts of men and women in free America. After carefully perusing the pages of this Irish newspaper the thought comes to us: Are the Irish people capable of self-government, or are they merely being held in the unholy grip of an octopus which they of themselves are unable to throw off? Whatever the cause, Ireland is an unhappy country and there is no mistaking the fact that she is in some kind of bondage, but whether it be internal or external we do not pretend to know.

PIONEER HARDWARE HOUSE

PIONEERS OF ARIZONA WILL GET TOGETHER

PHOENIX, Dec. 7.—To gather for permanent preservation the names of all the pioneers of the state of Arizona, and to bring these old-timers from every section of the state to a grand reunion in Phoenix in the spring, the Arizona Republican, Phoenix, has started a compilation of the names, ages, addresses and length of residence in the state of as many of these men and women as it can reach. It began the work by publishing in its own columns a short account of the plan, and so timely did the task appear to be that, although it has been in operation only a few days, more than 300 names have been received, with more coming on every mail, according to word received here yesterday.

Permanent records of the names are being made, and the plans for the reunion are already under way. It is believed by those in charge of the proposal that the gathering of the pioneers in the state capital in the spring will be the greatest event of its kind in the history of the state, and it is to this end the details of the reunion are being worked out.

All that is necessary to put the name of a pioneer on this permanent list is to send his name, address, age and number of years in the state to the Pioneer Editor, Arizona Republican, Phoenix, Arizona. Pioneers are defined as being those men or women who have lived continuously or practically continuously in the state for 35 years, or from January 1, 1880. It is not necessary that the pioneer shall send the account himself. Those who are acquainted with pioneers who may not see the published accounts of the plan may send in the names of such. From time to time a list of the names received will be published, so that corrections in names and addresses may be made. Due announcement of the reunion will also be made and circulation throughout the state, so that every pioneer may know what is being done in his behalf.

No More Booze In Christmas Dinners

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Christmas plum pudding, mince meat, cherries, peaches must assume a more spiritual and less spirituous form or prohibition enforcement officers will confiscate sundry Yuletide dinners, according to a drastic ruling of the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue. Such holiday delicacies as branded peaches, cherries, fruit cake and others dear to the hearts and memories of home are absolutely under the ban. They are liable to seizure, the ruling says. Just what test will be made to determine the alcoholic content of plum pudding has not been announced; but, as the proof of the pudding is the eating, many Christmas hosts may have uninvited guests. Science having determined that sweets turn to alcohol in the great distilleries of the system, sugar, it is expected in certain quarters, also will be excluded from future Yuletide tables.

COUNTIES SUE ARIZONA FOR TWO MILLION

PHOENIX, Dec. 8.—Mandamus proceedings against Jesse L. Boyce, as state auditor, and Harry S. Ross, as state treasurer and their successors in office, was begun today in the superior court by the counties of Pima, Cochise, Yavapai and Maricopa to recover nearly $2,000,000 in bonds and interest accrued, incurred by these counties through the issuing of bonds to promote the construction of a railroad from Ashfork through Phoenix to Prescott.

Through some error, according to Maricopa county officials, the bonds after their issuance by the counties, during the period between 1883 and 1887, were turned over to the railroad company. This company in turn, sold the bonds to a third party and never built the road. The suit to declare the bonds void was carried to the supreme court of the United States, which held the bonds void. Congress, by an act, validated the bonds to protect the innocent party and in the enabling act making Arizona a state, a clause was added setting aside 1,000,000 acres of land to be sold by the state and refunded to the counties to cover the bond issue and accrued interest.

MILLIONS OF CHRISTMAS TREES ARE BEING CUT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The United States uses annually between four and five million Christmas trees, according to the estimate of the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, approximately the combined consumption of England, Scotland, and Wales, and about 25 per cent greater than that of Germany. The Christmas tree bears practically the same fruit the country over, but the variety of the tree itself varies according to locality. The fir is undoubtedly the Christmas tree par excellence, on account of its long horizontal spreading, springy branches, and deep-green, fragrant foliage which persists longer than that of any other evergreen.

In the Northeastern and Lake States balsam fir is the favorite. In Colorado and other Rocky Mountain States, fir, though abundant, is difficult of access and the Lodge Pole pine and occasionally the Douglas fir and Englemann spruce are used. On the Pacific Coast the Christmas tree is often the white fir. Spruces with white fir in popularity, but as they occur at high altitudes are difficult to get.

Pines are in great demand for Christmas trees when fir and spruce are not available. Throughout Maryland, Virginia, and in Washington, D. C., the scrub pine finds a way into many homes while in southern Wyoming the Lodge Pole pine is almost the only species available.

War Cost U.S. 24 Billions

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The cost of the war to the American government was $24,000,000,000, according to Secretary Houston.

American Peace Commission Cost Nearly 2 Million

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—A special message giving the complete expense of the American Peace Commission during the work abroad has been transmitted to the Senate by the President.

The total expenditures amounted to $1,651,191 from December 1, 1918, to December 4, 1920.

Lack Of Money Cuts Force On State Highway

PHOENIX, Dec. 3.—Shortage of funds has made necessary reduction of forces in the state highway department, State Engineer Thomas Maddock said today. He said eight draftsmen had been released and that forces were being cut down wherever state road work was in progress in Arizona. Two camps on the Superior Miami road have been discontinued with a view to lowering the overhead expense, the state engineer said, and the work has been somewhat curtailed as a consequence. Concrete has been placed in the main arch of the new bridge being constructed over Queen creek between Superior and the old prison camp.

Contractors on the road from Barnardino to the New Mexico line are at work on the grades, Mr. Maddock said. The state highway department has received from Washington official approval of federal aid for the Phoenix-Glendale road and the Ray-Superior road.

MORE TEAM WORK GOAL OF SENATOR HE ASSERTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Harding, it is announced, has asked senators to proceed with all appropriation bills as rapidly as possible in order to get that necessary legislation out of the way and the deans cleared for a special session of Congress. He did not set a date, but said it would be recalled as soon as possible after March 4.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Cooperation and friendly relations between the White House and Congress is forecast by President-elect Harding in a short address from the floor of the Senate when the third and final session of the Sixty-fifth Congress convened at noon today.

Disclaiming any desire to criticize the present administration, Senator Harding declared it his ambition during the coming four years as President of the United States to insure better team work between the two branches of the Government.

The speech, which did not touch on detailed questions of policy, was delivered by Senator Harding in response to the ovation that greeted him when he went to the Senate chamber in his capacity of Senator and answered the opening roll call. He spoke briefly.

Following Senator Harding's address, Senate adjourned without transacting any business to await a communication from President Wilson.

Emery Miller Is Recommended As Postmaster

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The appointment of postmasters sent to congress today included Emery D. Miller of Nogales, Arizona.

Miss Lela Shields, one of the popular young lady clerks in the Patagonia Drug Co.'s stores, has been slightly indisposed this week from the effects of a bad cold.

Beggar Arrested Had Small Fortune

BUDAPEST, Dec. 3.—The police in clearing streets of beggars have arrested Dr. Stephen Balkanyi, a clerk in one of the government departments, who masqueraded as a beggar every evening and taking his stand at a crowded street corner asked for alms. When searched 35,000 crowns were found in his clothing, the result of three days begging.

The only circumstance which he quoted to his defense was: "I am cursed with an extraordinarily good digestion and as my government salary proved too small for my big appetite, I was obliged to turn to a more lucrative profession."

GREEK GOVERNMENT PLANNING TO GIVE CONSTANTINE CHANGE

ATHENS, Dec. 8.—Plans to have King Constantine return to Greece this week appeared to be abandoned. The decision of the government apparently was to continue its "wait and see" policy, with a tendency to leave the decision to Constantine himself.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—The Greek government has addressed a note to Constantine asking that he abdicate immediately in favor of the Crown Prince, says an Athens dispatch.

DANCE AT SAN RAFAEL SCHOOL HOUSE

There will be a dance at San Rafael school house Friday night, December 17th. There will be a basket supper. Everybody cordially invited. A good time is assured.

LUXURY AND HUMBLENESS

Even though your place in life may seem humble, your income from your daily work may not provide the luxuries that the rich enjoy—there should be a note of satisfaction in your life because of the fact that men do not unjustly accuse you and have you "investigated" every few months.—Trinity (Tex.) Tribune.

What, in reality, are luxuries? Are they rich food, rich furniture, rich apparel, rich equipage, rich perfumes? Or are they only the food, furniture and apparel which one enjoys? The rich who are saturated with things called luxuries do not in fact have any luxuries, for to the bee the juices of flowers are only fireless raw materials. On the other hand, to the genuinely hungry man a loaf of bread is a luxury of the most gratifying character. And that word "humble"—as never did like it. Who is humble in this free country? Who are so exalted that others must look up to behold him? To humble himself in the sight of God may be righteous, but even that may be overdone, granting that man was made in the image of his Creator. Modesty is the surest sign of nobility of character, but between modesty and humbleness there is a great gulf fixed. Modesty is the flower of self-respect, but humbleness is its opposite. We can look upon a modest girl and admire, but we can't quite concede admiration to a humble one. A man's a man for a' that, said Robert Burns, and there is no man born with the right to say that another man shall be humble in his presence. One must be considerate of another, surely. And each should have respect for all, and all for each. Farther than that, let no man go.
