PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Trank and daughter, Mrs. Melrose and daughter, guests of the Biasons, and Chester Brodino spent an enjoyable day Sunday picnicking at the Santa In Grove.

Joe Kane and Joe Collier left Sunday for Tucson, where they were called on jurors at the federal court session.

Fred Valenzuela is in Nogales as a juror in superior court cases.

A. H. Oblewell was in Nogales this week having dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pierce motored to Nogales Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Buhel were among Patagonians visiting Nogales last Saturday.

Mrs. Rafael Amadio is reported to be in a very serious condition at a Nogales hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, who have been visiting Mrs. Hopkins' mother, Mrs. Wilson, left Tuesday for Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kneward and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Capelhart and Mrs. Don C'ow spent the week-end in Tucson.

Joe Valdes and family left last week for Tucson, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Etchols of Mesquite field were in town Tuesday for supplies.

J. Burgoon, candidate for county treasurer on the Republican ticket, was traveling on acquaintances in Patagonia Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kinsey, Mrs. E. F. Kinsley and children and Ernie Finley of the San Rafael valley were visitors at the Patagonian office Saturday, and is backed by O. H. Weaver's Home Bakery, Nogales. —Advertisement.

RUMORS OF DISSENSION IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

There are a number of stories afloat in Phoenix relating to alleged dissension in the Republican ranks. Attorney General Galbraith is reported to have been told by Governor Campbell that it is appearance and manner of speaking did not meet his excellency's approval, and he was told several times to cut his speeches short, and upon failure to do so was invited to leave the entire of speakers.

Mr. Galbraith is also reported to be having some difficulties with Secretary of State Hall. Mr. Galbraith is reported to have stated that every speech Mr. Hall makes loses votes for Galbraith, and there is a decided coolness between these two candidates.

The present campaign has only served to widen the breach caused by the failure of Secretary of State Hall to accept the rulings of the attorney general's office as good law, and in some instances has obtained the breaking of the courts in ignoring the attorney general's opinions.

Reports from Coconino county are to the effect that the Republicans are de-voting all their attention to the election of Campbell and Elsie Tokes as state superintendent of public instruction and are ignoring the rest of the ticket.

Reports from Pinal county indicate that the combination there is Campbell and Judge Otis J. Bingham, and that the rest of the ticket is being ignored there. Other counties report similar combinations of Campbell and the candidate who happens to be the strongest in that particular county.

The stories in Pima are that the Republican candidates have sought on the "from Campbell policy" of trading off everybody on the ticket in order to secure his own election, and some of them are very bitter in their denunciation of Campbell's methods.

CHURCH NOTICE

Regular church services were held last Sunday at the school house at 11 p. m. Opening song, "Rock of Ages." Prayers were offered by the pastor, followed by the offering.

Mrs. Healey played a solo on the piano, and Lela Mead sang a solo.

The sermon was preached from the text, "Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting." —St. Bernard, "Where shall we stand, brother? Are we true, or is of falling?"

The Ten Commandments were also discussed.

Rev. Forman expressed a desire to have an opportunity to talk to all the people of Patagonia ONCE before he attends church as they should. Won't you come next Sunday?

It requires a brave man to stick to anything. Anyone can be a quitter. We had a good sermon last Friday night by the Rev. M. S. of Tucson, followed by a conference of officers were selected for the ensuing year for both Sunday school and church. Besides Rev. Forman and wife and son, and Rev. Shaw, Rev. Stewart of Tucson also was with us.

MANAGER OF BOQUILLAS CATTLE RANCH DEAD

Word was received in Patagonia Monday evening of the death, Sunday of Henry K. Street, manager of the Boquillas Land and Cattle Company, at Hereford, Co-chise county. Mr. Street was born in Davis county, Texas, in the year 1869 and was 54 years old at the time of his death.

At an early age Mr. Street went to New Mexico, where he engaged in the cattle business and remained there until 1888, when he sold his cattle to Proctor Dastor of the Boquillas company and delivered the cattle on the San Pedro river, remaining with the company as manager of its property at Hereford until the time of his death.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

COLL E. RICHARDSON WILL BE HOME OCTOBER 30

In a recent letter from Col. R. Richardson, who has been visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Binkley, of Franklin, Pa., for several weeks, the information is given that he has improved in health and will be home about October 30.

The many friends of the colored are glad to know that he is again to return to Patagonia, as it was feared when he left that his physical condition was such that he would remain in Pennsylvania permanently, although he stated upon his departure for the east that he would be back within a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bird spent Sunday visiting friends in Patagonia.

Letters from Mrs. Maud Francis and Mrs. Woodie Gathia give the welcome news that they are improving in health and enjoying the rest on the coast. They are located temporarily at Long Beach.

Born, Oct. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strein of Baines City, Idaho, a daughter, Mrs. Steen was Miss Lavonia Bissett, daughter of W. H. Bissett of Patagonia.

The new community piano arrived Tuesday from Tucson, where it will remain temporarily for use at social and religious functions.

AT THE COMMERCIAL HOTEL

The following guests registered at the Commercial Hotel during the week: Dr. T. B. Grzes, representing the Bick grocery concern, was a business visitor to Patagonia Monday and Wednesday of this week.

It is reported that Lela Stickle was married recently in Miami. No details of the affair were given.

We'll meet you in Patagonia Saturday night, October 21, at the big dance to be given by the Patagonian Social Club at the Opera House. Tickets are on sale at the Opera House. Tickets are by the great of the sea on.

COMMUNITY HEALTH DAY AT ELGIN, OCTOBER 31

Community health day was held at Elgin, Wednesday, October 31. The day was organized by the home demonstration agent and women of the community. It was a remarkably interesting meeting. One hundred and twenty-five people were present and fathers and mothers showed their interest by coming and staying all day.

Five schools were represented—Eight, Sunnita, Bain Valley, Vaughn and Co. C. A. Pierce, candidate for state senator, acted as chairman of the meeting. Judge Ross cautioned voters to make five X's on their ballot if they wished to vote a straight ticket, calling their attention to the fact that judges' names were not put in party columns. Tax commissioners also are to be voted for on side of party columns.

Senator Ashurst, at the request of Miss Healey, local school principal, gave a brief history of the tariff for the benefit of the upper-grade pupils, who are studying that subject in the local school.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Mrs. Ann S. McKee of Washington, D. C., remembered the school with a volume set of "The Book of Knowledge" to the school library. Mrs. McKee used to live in this community, and has not forgotten the school.

The third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth grade pupils were given tests in about reading this week. The class scores will be compared with standard scores of other schools. Special exercises in silent reading will be given and the children will be tested again at the close of the term to note improvement. The scores are given for both rate and comprehension in silent reading.

Seventh grade pupils gave a short program in the grammar room Tuesday morning. In two weeks the eighth-grade pupils will have their turn.

The upper-grade boys have made a record of jumping standards and are working to make a record for the high jump. Fifth and sixth grade pupils have been working on the peapole car in arithmetic.

The school bus was in the necessary money (50 cents from each room) for registering in the Junior Red Cross. As part of the school program, the children of the upper grades will exchange letters with children of the Red Cross in the school of foreign countries, and the sewing class of girls will make a letter for some baby in charge of the Junior Red Cross.

DO UPPER COUNTY DISTRICTS

Harold Brown, candidate for sheriff, and Tracy Bird, candidate for county recorder, have completed a campaign trip throughout the county districts. These two efficient office workers are well pleased with their reception at the hands of the attention and numbers in the county, who seemed them of their hearty support at the general election.

MAN KILLED IN BENSON

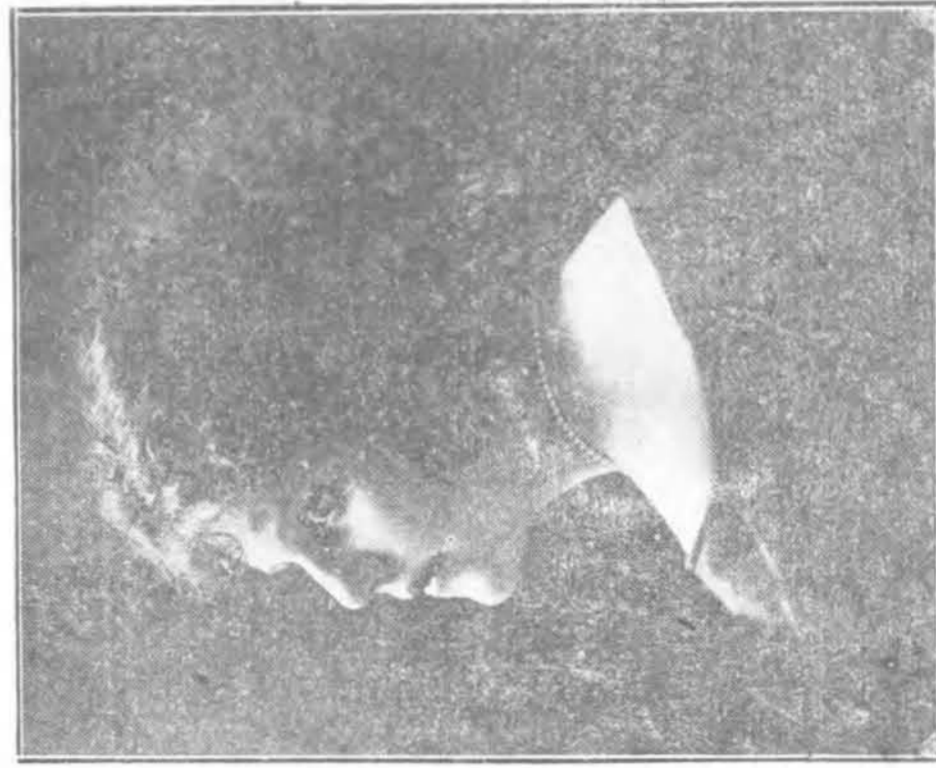

In an auto accident at Benson Monday a man named Henderson was killed and others in the car were injured when the car turned turtle at that place. It is said the car was traveling at a terrific speed when the accident occurred. The dead man was driving the car.

JFK PARKER DOING GOOD WORK ON NOGALES ROAD

The road work being done on the Patagonia-Nogales road by Jim Parker Jr. and his small crew of men deserves the commendation of the citizens of the county. Most of the grades were badly washed during the summer rains and were in a deplorable condition. Superior O. P. Ashburn, who has the supervision of the greater part of the road, put Mr. Parker to work requiring the best plans, and his judgment has proved key for the work.

All work so far performed has been of benefit to the traveling public and the cost of the work has been very lit compared with the results obtained. It is to be hoped that the supervisors will see fit to keep Mr. Parker and his small crew of men at work on the road until it is again put in first-class condition. Much money was spent by the county in building the Patagonia-Nogales road and very little has been expended in its upkeep. Now that work has started grading the hills and widening the thoroughfare will be repaired before a fault is entailed.

The automobile expense for Campbell for the year 1920 was $340.76, or more than double what it cost to keep the "big white car" used by Hunt during the administration.

"Ah, here are Fell and Ansley!" exclaimed Mallard, almost with relief. "I—ah—my friends, I don't suppose you've seen Bob recently?"

"D—n it!" muttered Mallard. "Did they hear us coming? No, that wouldn't matter a hang to them—but what checked them so quickly?"

"That gentleman flung open the door, and Mallard entered at his side. They then came to a startled halt, at view of the scene which greeted them.

"Even if things are as you say, while I don't doubt at all," said the chief, slowly, "I can't believe the boy did it."

"I don't want to save myself by putting the wrong man behind the bars," he returned. "It sure looks like he was the Masquer all the while, but you say that he wasn't."

"Those are the facts," said Fell. "I don't want to accuse a man of crimes I know he did not commit."

"How'd you know who he was?" interjected the chief, shrewdly.

"Gramont recognized him; Ansley and I confirmed the recognition. He was more or less intoxicated—chiefly more."

"The boy's a wreck this minute," the chief held a match to his unlighted cigar.

"No!" Fell spoke quietly. "The original Masquer was another person, and had nothing to do with the present case."

"CAMPBELL AND INDUSTRIAL PEACE"

Industrial "peace" is what we have been suffering from for the last two or three years. What we need now is industrial "activity."

But I couldn't help reflecting as I heard his story through. That the hopeful, cheerful hustler seems to have a lot to do.

I've been in business places where the air was thick with gloom, and the men wore sad and solemn like the mourners at a tomb.

And there wasn't any business or an order coming in— And, what's more, there never will be till those fellows start to grin.

"There isn't any business"—aren't you weary of the cry? Men have caught the gloomy habit and they sit around and sigh.

It is time to get the business, it is time to hustle out, With a man's faith in the future—much too long we've scattered doubt, Much too long we've sobbed and whimpered, much too long we've talked of woe.

Now it's time for optimism and the hopeful phrase: "LET'S GO!" —The Informant.

But I couldn't help reflecting as I heard his story through. That the hopeful, cheerful hustler seems to have a lot to do.

I've been in business places where the air was thick with gloom, and the men wore sad and solemn like the mourners at a tomb.

THE OPTIMIST'S CREED

Promise Yourself— To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them. To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

Lack of suitable fuel is one reason for Poland's backwardness in automobile ownership. The crude petroleum found in Poland is of very low gasoline content and oil produced therefrom is of very poor quality.

Whenever we see a fellow tipping a waitress we wonder if he ever tips his wife or even gives her a kind word when she has an extra good meal prepared for him.

Nothing you seldom hear of in this country is the nation's vice president. Some women don't think they look any taller than they are half bear. Ouch!

TOO EARLY FOR FLOWERS

A very interesting little detail of the manner in which the expenses of state government are increased, and if the old saying be true "that it is the little things that make big ones" it clearly emphasizes the manner of conducting the government of this state.

There was a warrant drawn on the general fund of the state of Arizona, dated September 21, 1922, for the Donato Floral Company for $15 for flowers to the governor's office during the month of June, 1922.

This little detail is on a par with other warrants drawn on the state treasurer of Arizona to pay certain newspapers of the state for publishing the picture and laudatory write-ups of this excellency, Governor Thomas E. Campbell.

IT COSTS MONEY TO TRAVEL

The amount expended by the state officials in traveling, including railroad fare, automobiles and hotel, during the year 1919-1920 was $126,024.32, or 1921, $54.16 more than was ever spent for this purpose during a single year of Hunt's administration.

While the above mentioned expenditure may seem astounding in the light of the promise of economic miracle during the last three state administrations, yet it is not inconceivable that the expense for travel could have been materially less when it is known that between the 20th day of April and the 12th day of October, 1921, 173 days Governor Campbell was away from his office in the state house 72 days, or approximately one-half of the time.

Real politicians are not a bad lot; it's the alleged politicians that hurt.

Name Mentioned Surely Signified Nothing if Not the Presence of Some Dignified "Frau."

"You can have too much of anything, even roses," said the visitor to the woman. "The friends I was staying with were botany heads. I like flowers, but I can't dissect them and label them with foreign names. We were out riding, and had come to a beautiful garden. They stopped the car and talked botany for what seemed hours."

"I was quite drowsy, when suddenly my seatmate, leaning across me, called out: 'There's Frau Karl!' 'Where?' asked the one at the wheel, halting the car. 'There! There! In that garden; along the path to the left,' explained the third, while I craned an inquisitive neck to see the dignified and portly dame that his enthusiasm made me expect to find strolling in parasol-shade leisure through her grounds.

"How perfectly wonderful to run across a friend so accidentally," said I, relieved at the change of conversation. "Do let's stop for a moment to call on her!" Whereupon five sets of eyes surveyed me with amazement. "Call on her?" cried the eyes' owners, all at once. "On her? Why, it's a rose we mean, a Frau Karl Druschki!" —Chicago Journal.

PICNIC AT ELGIN OIL WELL

Many persons from all parts of the county motored to Elgin Sunday and picnicked at the oil well. The purpose of the gathering was to inform those interested as to progress being made at the well and to inspire confidence in those having the work in hand.

Speakers stated that work was progressing as rapidly as circumstances permit and that there would be other drilling companies on the ground in the near future. A plan was made for land owners to get together and lease their land as a whole, so companies could be induced to come into the country and drill. Some of the owners of land have refused to lease their property, believing they will benefit by holding out until a successful well is drilled.

IS THIS ILLEGAL?

There is a provision in the law of Arizona that no state official shall draw two salaries from the state.

Warrant No. 6185 was drawn on September 30, 1922, from the general fund, made payable to W. J. Galbraith, attorney general of the state of Arizona, for $126.40, for pay and allowances as captain of the National Guard at the annual encampment, August 27th to September 8, 1922. Mr. Galbraith also is reported to have drawn a salary as attorney general of the state for the same period.

The question of whether Attorney General W. J. Galbraith and Captain of the National Guard W. J. Galbraith, who is one and the same person, should be permitted to draw two salaries might be passed upon and an opinion rendered by Mr. Galbraith to the state treasurer, and perhaps Governor Campbell might be induced to look into the matter. We call his attention to it.

As an afterthought, we call attention to the fact that on October 6, Mr. O. E. Schupp was paid warrant No. 6671 out of the general fund, in the amount of $250, for special assistance to the attorney general during the month of September, 1922. We call this little matter to Mr. Galbraith's attention and ask him to explain to the voters when he discusses the question of the number of assistants employed by his office.

GOOD MARKET FOR FAT CATTLE

Fat Arizona steers are bringing up to $5.50 and cows $5 l.o.b. leading points, destined for Los Angeles markets. There seems to be an unlimited demand at present for cattle that will fill the bill. Los Angeles packers have been shipping in cattle from Kansas and northeastern Montana.

Arizona cattlemen have enough fat cattle to supply this demand, says Dr. R. H. Williams, animal husbandman of the University of Arizona. Some special effort is necessary to get buyers and sellers together. The packers cannot afford to send their buyers out to bid on mixed bunches or small lots of fat cattle. The Los Angeles buyers want to know where to find fat cattle in lots of upwards of three carloads.

The best way to make a clearance of fat range cattle is to gather them in pastures and make a count of each kind. Hold only those fat enough for good beef. Then see your county agricultural agent or write Los Angeles packers, stating the number and kind of cattle available and ask them to send out buyers.

If buyers can't be induced to come out to inspect the cattle, it looks like a safe venture to ship fat cattle direct to Los Angeles. Freight and shrinkage will amount to about $1 to $1.25 per hundredweight.

Something should be done to unload fat range cattle before they lose flesh this winter. Early sales will distribute the cattle so that they will not compete with fed cattle. This year a large number of cattle are being fed in irrigated valleys and these will begin to go to market in February.

Many a good husband has been spoiled by the unjustified jealousy of a wife.

TAKE LIVESTOCK TO STATE FAIR

Progressive breeders of livestock will want to have their animals at the State Fair on October 30 to November 4, says Dr. R. H. Williams, animal husbandman of the University of Arizona. It is not to win ribbons and premium money that induces all the best breeders to show their stock. They feel their animals are worth showing the public, and they also want to compare their purchases with the best in the state. The State Fair is the best rule to measure herd type and usefulness of the animals. Much valuable information can be secured by being an active showman rather than an interested spectator. Arizona stockmen should have a big representation of horses, cattle, sheep and pigs at the coming fair.

AUTO THIEF CAPTURED IN MEXICO, JAILED IN NOGALES

Charged with the theft of an automobile the property of O. H. Weaver, proprietor of the Home Bakery, Nogales, Mate Gray, a negro, was placed in the county jail at Nogales Sunday afternoon, having been taken to the county seat from Douglas by Earl Hamback, representing the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company and the sheriff's office of this county.

Gray was arrested at Nazasari, Sonora, by Mexican police officials, who had been informed that he was in possession of the stolen car, and was deported from Mexico at Agua Prieta, the Mexican officials charging him with being an undesirable citizen.

The car stolen had just been purchased by Mr. Weaver from the W. H. Davey Co., agents for the Chevrolet, and had been left parked in front of the Weaver place only a short time when the theft was discovered. Immediate action was taken to recover the car, but all traces of it had been lost until it was discovered in Mexico in a badly damaged condition, with all extras and tools stripped from it.
